DELTA AIR LINES CROWN ROOM CLUB® MEMBERS TO ENJOY UNLIMITED ACCESS TO OVER 750 REGUS BUSINESS
LOUNGES IN 350 CITIES WORLDWIDE

Business travelers can also access private offices, meeting rooms, and other business services in Regus locations.

DALLAS – November 9, 2005 – Delta Air Lines' (NYSE: DAL) and Regus Group (LSE: RGU), the largest provider of professional workplaces, announced they are partnering to offer Delta Air Lines' Crown Room Club members access to a combined network of over 750 business centers in 60 countries. Under the terms of the agreement, Delta Crown Room Club members will receive complimentary enrollment in Regus' Network Access program worldwide.

Through Regus' Network Access, Crown Room Club members can now look beyond airport-based business lounges to preferred access to business centers in downtown areas and major suburban business markets in 350 cities worldwide. The Regus Group network, which includes numerous HQ locations, provides the professional environment business travelers need to be more efficient and as Network Access members, executives will also have access to private offices, meeting rooms, and business services, including administrative support.

"This unique partnership with Regus will help our Crown Room Club members be as productive as they want to be, whether traveling or in their daily lives. This means not only getting them to their destination, but having partners that are equipped to meet their unique demands anywhere in the world," said Betty Hollan, General Manager, Delta's Customer Lounge Programs. "Now, when business travelers arrive at their destinations, they can take advantage of the various amenities offered in our Crown Room Clubs or at a Regus location in the city center or a suburban office park."

Mark Dixon, Chief Executive of Regus Group, said, "Business travelers greatest productivity challenge is having an appropriate place to work with full business support while they are on the road. Our business lounges, offices and meeting spaces were specifically designed to meet the demands of business travelers."

Delta Air Lines is the world's second-largest airline in terms of passengers carried and the leading U.S. carrier across the Atlantic, offering daily flights to 506 destinations in 91 countries on Delta, Song, Delta Shuttle, the Delta Connection carriers and its worldwide partners. Delta's marketing alliances allow customers to earn and redeem frequent flier miles on more than 14,000 flights offered by SkyTeam and other partners. Delta is a founding member of SkyTeam, a global airline alliance that provides customers with extensive worldwide destinations, flights and services.
