Dallas - December 15, 2006: The Regus Group (LSE: RGU), the world's largest provider of fully furnished and equipped offices with 750 locations in 60 countries, announced it has acquired a new business center in Greensboro, North Carolina.

In response to rapidly growing demand for its innovative products and services, Regus adds its newest location - known as Airport Center Drive - bringing Regus' network in the state of North Carolina to seven centers, with three in Charlotte, one in Greensboro, and three in Raleigh.

The new business center, located on the 4th floor at 7800 Airport Center Drive in Greensboro, occupies more than 6,000 square feet, and provides companies the flexibility and resources they need to compete in today's competitive marketplace.

Commenting on the opening, President of Regus Group Americas, Guillermo Rotman said, "Rising customer demand means we can maintain a strong presence in Greensboro. We help companies align their rapidly changing business needs with their property needs, which is particularly important in this fast-paced market."

The new Regus center's location in northwest Greensboro affords businesses the opportunity to work from one of the city's most prestigious business addresses. The four-story brick building is adjacent to the Greensboro International Airport in the heart of the Triad.
